

Sedona Arts Center

BRING YOUR IMAGINATION TO LIFE!

RENTAL POLICY: INSURANCE

1. The Sedona Arts Center requires additional insurance of its property when facilities are rented.
2. The Arts Center's insurance broker requires that the Sedona Arts Center be named as "additionally insured" for the duration of the events or exhibitions.
3. Renters will show Proof of Insurance for $1 million (liability), naming the Sedona Arts Center as "additionally insured" for the duration of the event/exhibit.
4. The insurance broker/agent for the Sedona Arts Center is Ayres & French, Dick French, Jr. at (928) 282-7191.

Notes:

General liability coverage for other non-profit organizations renting the facilities will usually cover the above requirement, and a Certificate of Additional Insurance can be provided by the non-profit's broker.

Individual renters, or those for whom the event/exhibit is not directly associated with a non-profit organization, should check with their insurance brokers for their home owners or business insurance regarding "Special Event Coverage."

Individual/non-corporate renters who have events/exhibits more than once during a year at similar venues may purchase "annual special event" coverage which may be less than per event/exhibit coverage.
